All events are in
St Faith's hall

Farewell friends... Tom and Sarah Jarrett (on the left) at a special party at the hall the Friday before they emigrated to New Zealand with their three children, Robyn, nearly 12, Ben, 10, and Katie, 2. A few days later they had arrived at Welcome Bay, in the North Island, where they are staying with friends until they move into their new home. We know they'll be back, though, if only for a visit, as Sarah's mum and dad, Ann (centre) and Roger have bought Sarah and Tom's old house in New House Lane. Welcome to Hilltop, Ann and Roger.

Step back 34 years to 1973 and the 21st anniversary of St Faith's hall. June Robins (front row, right, in a white jumper and dark skirt) kindly lent this photo. Others joining in the celebrations — an event recorded in the Kentish Gazette — were: Audrey MacGregor, Jack MacGregor, Lilian Tolputt, Richard Tolputt, Mr and Mrs Somerfield, David Somerfield, Valerie Williams, Sue Knott, Mrs Barton, Andrew MacGregor, Jean Phipps, Sharon Wallis, Peter Robins, Mr and Mrs Bean, Mr and Mrs Best, Elsie Phipps, Maureen Hillman, Barbara Jenkinson.

SHORT STORY with a moral in it somewhere, by Brendan Troope .... There was a London Show, followed by dinner, a few cocktails and the odd glass of wine. The next morning I had this hazy memory of volunteering to do an abseil in aid of Kent Association for the Blind in four days time. Thankfully I came down in one piece. Many thanks to the kind people who sponsored me at such short notice, I am pleased to say that I managed to raise £107.
